We are seeking to employ a committed teaching assistant starting as soon as possible – Level 2

We are looking to recruit somebody special to our amazing teaching assistant team!

Do you want to join a forward-thinking school with innovative approaches to learning at its heart that benefits from being strongly evidence informed?

We are looking for someone who:

- + Understands the needs of children and appreciates a therapeutic approach for behaviour
- + Can encourage and support all children in reaching their full potential
- + Has a good sense of humour
- + Is resilient and nurturing
- + Has the best interests of children at the centre of their practice
- + Is able to think on their feet
- + Incorporates independence within learning activities
- + Has experience of leading interventions to support children special education needs

We will be able to offer you:

- Motivated children whose behaviour for learning is rated as a real strength
- A welcoming learning environment in a purpose-built school with large grounds including a nature area, wood and allotment.
- A highly supportive Governing Body
- Skilled and professional staff who have the best interests of children at heart
- Opportunities for continuing professional development driven by evidence

A taste of life here: <https://www.littleport.cambs.sch.uk/school-prospectus/>. Littleport Community Primary is a successful, growing school located in a small town close to Ely in East Anglia with 400 children on roll. It is on the direct rail line from London to Cambridge, Ely and Kings Lynn (just over an hour from Kings Cross) and is easily accessible for commuters.

If the position interests you, please contact the Headteacher, Adam Rivett or Julie Warman, Office Manager, for an application pack via the school office – office@littleport.cambs.sch.uk.
